

vision

Region 10, Idaho: UWR/Coordinated Transportation

Barbara Singleton
April 2008

Overview

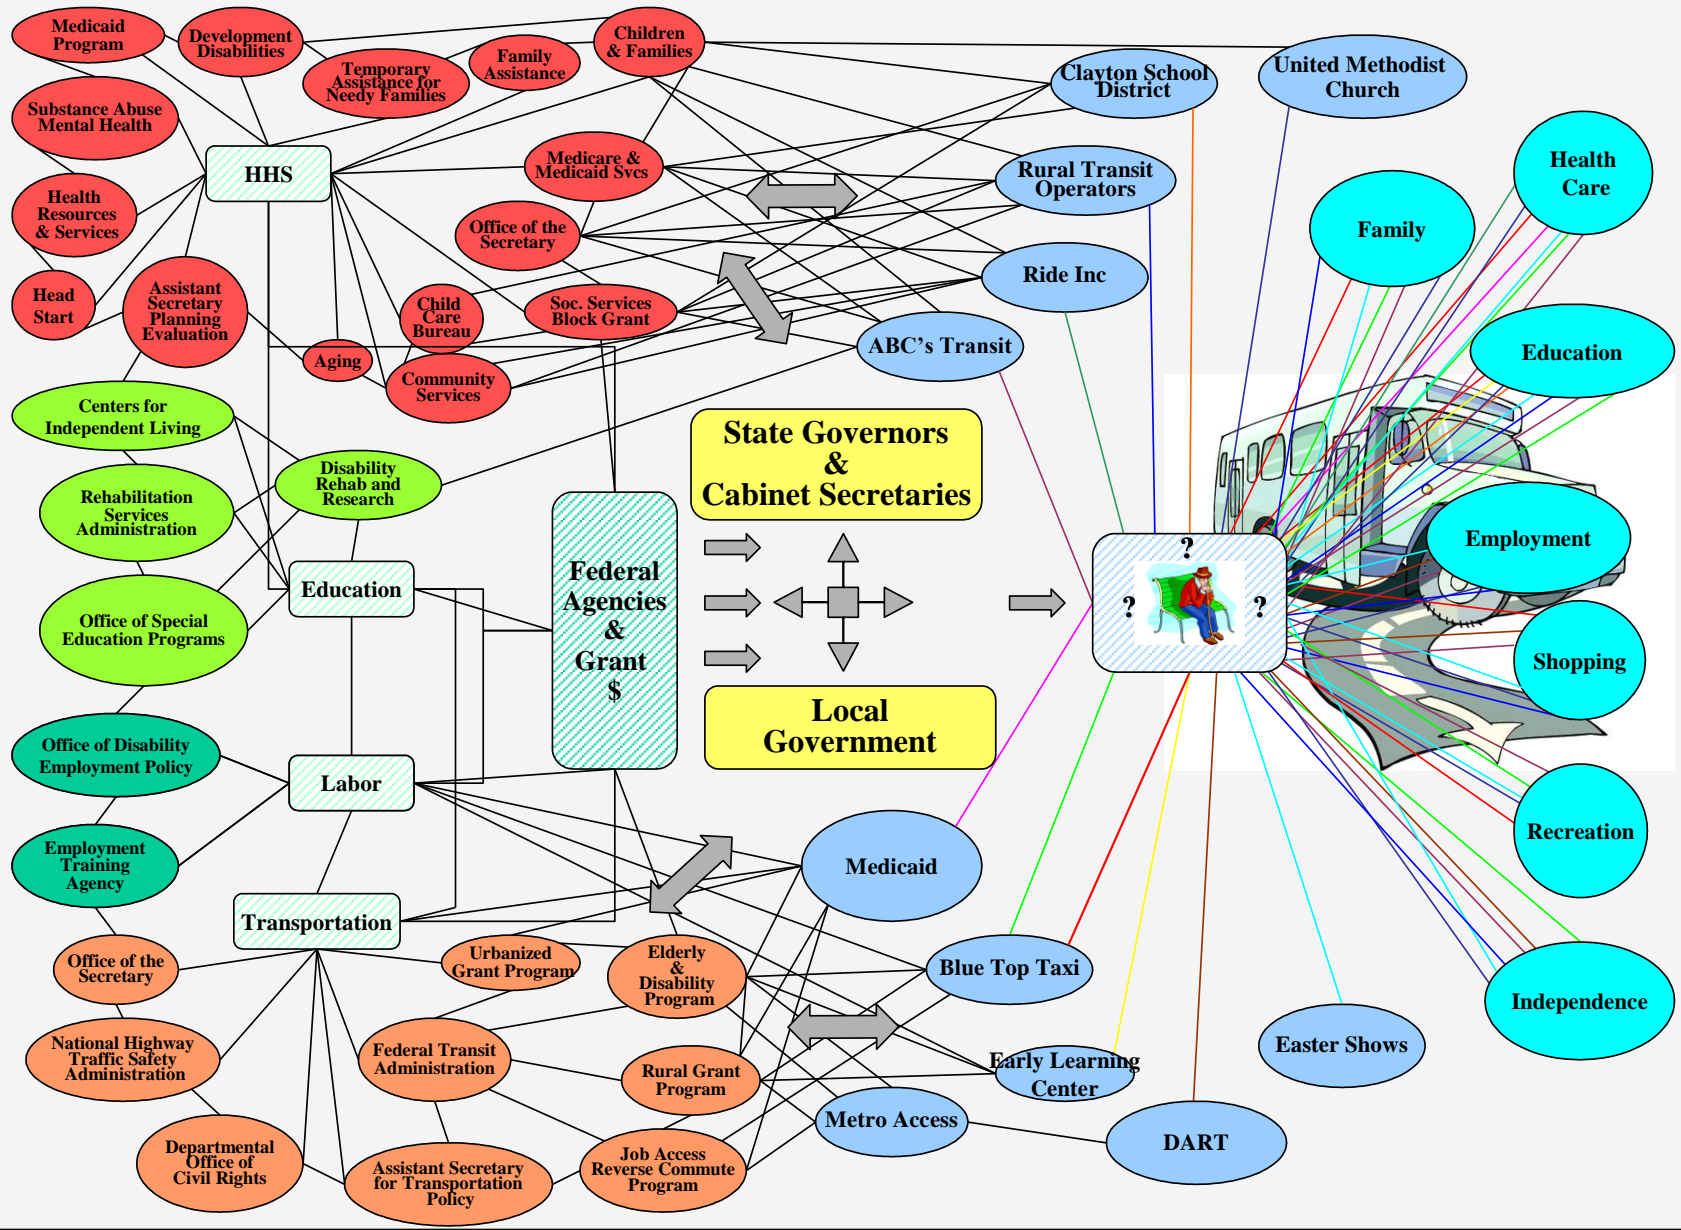

- Introduction
- United We Ride (UWR)
- UWR Idaho (UWR ID)
- Coordination: Local Issues, Global Applications
- Next Steps
- Q & A

Introduction

- UWR Ambassador
- Attendees
- Absent Partners
 - CCAM
 - CTAA
 - Project Action

Confusing Array of Programs & Funding

United We Ride (UWR)

- Federal Program
- Opportunities
 - JARC
 - New Freedom
 - Mobility Management
 - Nonurbanized/Rural
 - Urban
 - Other
 - Mobility Management
 - Veterans' Administration
- Challenges
 - Reauthorization
 - FMCSA

The Role of an Ambassador

- Create an educational process
- Work with the FTA regional office
- Extend coordination awareness
- Identify key stakeholders
- Conduct regular meetings
- Serve as a clearing house
 - Planning tools
 - Technical assistance
 - Training
 - Mobility Management

UWR Idaho (UWR ID)

- Coordination Strategies
 - Statewide transportation survey
 - SCC <> RCC <> RTC
- Challenges
 - Funding
 - Sustainability

vision

Coordination: Local Issues, Global Applications

■ Local Strategies

- Education
- Implement a 6-C Planning Process
 - Comprehensive
 - Coordinated
 - Continuous
 - Cooperative
 - Communicative
 - Conduit

■ Challenges:

- New and increased demands
 - Improvements medical technology
 - The end of peak oil
 - Global climate change
 - The baby boomers
- Strained federal, state, and local funding

It works: Allendale, SC

- County Coordinated Broker
 - 6 human svc, social service and transit agencies
 - Centralized call center
 - Employment, medical and other trips
 - COG, CTAA and County developed

It Works: Bethel, AK

- Public Transit Service
 - Funded by FTA, ONC Tribe, City of Bethel
 - Senior Service is Lead Agency
 - Demand Response and Dev. Route
 - City maintenance

Summary

- Recap
 - What, Gut, So What, What Now?
 - Resources
 - UWR
 - National Resource Center
 - Institute on Transportation Coordination
 - Senior Mobility
 - NTI Course
- Other
 - Reauthorization

Technical Assistance

- CTAA Rural and Tribal TA Provides:
 - Planning assistance for facility development
 - Transit service improvement and expansion
 - New system start-up
 - Policy and procedure development
 - Marketing
 - Transportation coordination
 - Training and public transit problem solving activities

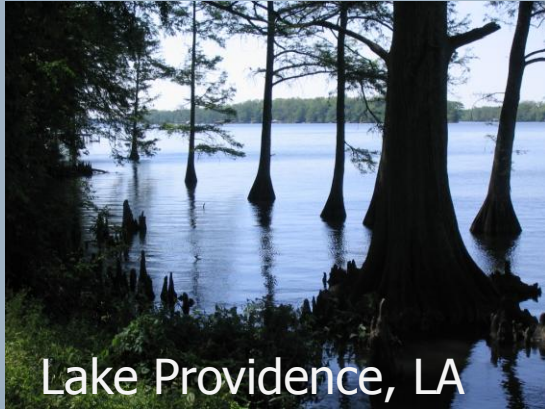

TA Projects since 1990

Sample Projects

Lake Providence, LA

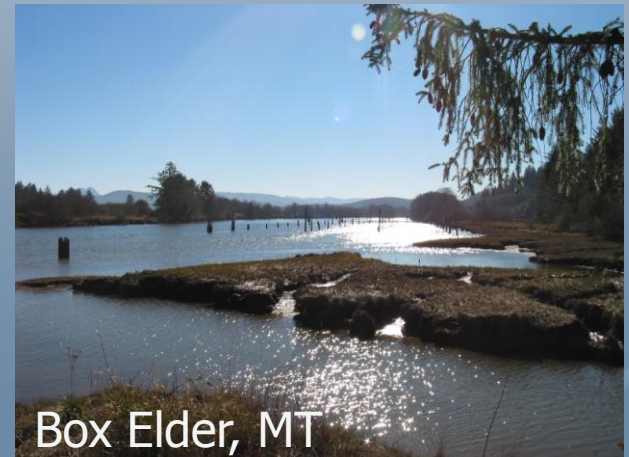

Port Townsend,
WA

Bennington, VT

Lake Placid, NY

Box Elder, MT

Q & A

Thank you!

Email Barbara at singleton@ctaa.org

vision